Barney, Sallie Norvell
[Mobile, AL]

1929

Aug 8th 1929.

Metropolitan Museum.
New York City

I have a rare Coin in my possession, a silver dime. with Brigadier General G. T. Beauregard
Confederate States Army — and his name on the side. on the other, "Manassas" 1861 - which was evidently shot in his pocket. he was promoted after the Battle to Major General" — I would appreciate any information you may

may be able to give me — as to the value of Thanking you in advance I am Truly Emily Jones

Mrs. Sallie Steele Barney
117 N. Ann St. Mobile Ala.

Hair picture was also on the Cross. I forgot to mention this.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE RECEIVED
AUG 12 1929

August 16th, 1929.

Mrs. Sallie Norvell Barney,
117 N. Ann Street,
Mobile, Ala.

Dear Madam:

Your letter to the Metropolitan Museum of Art, has been referred to me for reply:

Your little silver Beauregard medal, is rather rare. Most of those we have seen have holes in them, as they were worn around the neck as "keepsakes". If yours is without a hole, and in absolutely fine condition, we would be pleased to give you six dollars ($ 6.00) for it.

Very truly yours,

Curator.